The Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

Office of Minority Health and Health Disparities presents

Maryland's 11th Annual Statewide Health Disparities Conference

The Future of Community Health Workers in Maryland: Their Role in Achieving Health Equity

Wednesday, October 29, 2014

8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Martin's West

6817 Dogwood Road, Baltimore, MD 21244

Who should attend:

- Those interested in discussing and learning about Community Health Workers in Maryland including: Practicing Community Health Workers; health departments; HEZ representatives; LHIP coalitions; elected officials; FQHCs; health service providers; faith and community based organizations; Health Benefit Exchange partners; academicians; and students

Attend this conference to:

- Understand the status of today's Community Health Worker (CHW) workforce in Maryland and other states
- Recognize how CHWs help to advance health equity
- Discuss training, credentialing, reimbursement and payment issues for CHWs
- Identify successful initiatives that utilize CHWs
- Learn about promising practices and lessons learned by practicing CHWs and initiatives that utilize CHWs

Registration is OPEN at http://dhmh.maryland.gov/mhhd

This conference, including meals and parking, is free, however registration is required

For more information or questions:

E-mail: DHMH.HealthDisparities@Maryland.gov Phone: 410-767-7117

Website: http://dhmh.maryland.gov/mhhd

Conference Co-Sponsor: University of Maryland, School of Public Health
Maryland Center for Health Equity