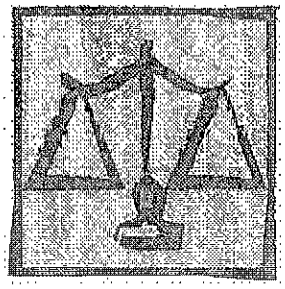
The Baltimore City Health Department Office of Aging and CARE Services
Public Guardianship Program

Guardian of the Person

The Baltimore City Circuit court appoints The Baltimore City Health Department-Office of Aging and CARE Services as the Guardian of the Person to make personal decision for disabled adults 65 years old and older. The Department of Social Services is appointed the Guardian of the Person for disabled persons 64 years and younger.

The court can grant the Guardian of the Person with the authority to:

- Decide where the person will live;
- Provide for the care, comfort, education, and social and recreational needs of the person;
- Request funds for the person's care and needs from the guardian of the property and
- Consent or withhold consent to medical care, including admission to a hospital or nursing home with some limitations


The Guardianship Program provides education to families and professionals on alternatives to guardianship inclusive of representative payee, power of attorney and health care agents and other options.
