An examination application and fees for the 2010 NBCOT occupational therapy certification examination have been received for the candidate identified below and the candidate has been authorized to schedule to examine at a Prometric Test Center. The candidate has met some requirements for admission to the examination. Documentation from the candidate's registrar's office, confirming successful completion of academic and fieldwork requirements in occupational therapy has been received. The candidate may schedule and test with Prometric up until the "Eligibility Expiration Date" noted below. If the candidate fails to test before this expiration date, eligibility will continue and the candidate will be required to obtain a new Authorization to Test (ATT) letter from NBCOT. If this candidate has failed a previous NBCOT certification examination taken after 2004, at the level noted below (COTA®/OTR®), then the examination history for those administrations is reported.
