

Regional Forum on Hospital-Community Partnerships

Date and time: Monday, September 29, 2014; 10:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
Location: Western Maryland Health System, 12500 Willowbrook Road, Cumberland, MD 21502
Building 1, Second floor, Auditorium Rooms 1, 2, 3, and 4

Purpose: The forum will highlight several innovative partnerships and cross-setting collaborations that are under current implementation and discuss how these programs fit into the larger context of the state’s new Medicare All-Payor Waiver, State Innovation Model/Community Integrated Medical Home, and promote ongoing population health improvement efforts.

Outcome: To replicate, expand, and sustain innovative hospital-community partnerships. The forums will inform a white paper that will be delivered to the Maryland Community Health Resources Commission (CHRC) later this year and guide future Calls for Proposals issues by the CHRC.

Presentations from the forum will be posted on the Commission’s website. Contact: Edith Budd, edith.budd@maryland.gov or 410.260.6290.
