

Minority Outreach & Technical Assistance (MOTA)

Brothers United Who Dare To Care (BUWDTC) – Washington County

Andy Smith
131 W. North Avenue
2nd Floor Martin Luther King Jr. Community Center
Hagerstown, MD 21740
(301) 393-9290 Email: andy@brotherswhocare.org

The Brothers United Who Dare To Care (BUWDTC) has been working to promote the culture, health and success of the communities of Washington County since 1996. BUWDTC focus on reducing or eliminating disparities of minority communities by hosting training programs, self-help workshops, health education seminars and events.

BUWDTC plans for this upcoming year include hosting a “Speak Up for Better Health Rally” and distributing materials on selected disparities at minority community events.

For more information about Brothers United Who Dare To Care (BUWDTC) and the MOTA program in Washington County, contact Andy Smith, MOTA Program Director at (301) 393-9290.