The Somerset Alumni Group for Educational Strategies (SAGES) received its designation as a non-profit organization in 2006 committed to enhancing, expanding and supporting educational opportunities in Somerset County. SAGES became a MOTA vendor in 2011 and will begin to work on reducing the impact of health disparities in Somerset County.

During the upcoming year SAGES plans to develop Local Health Disparities Coalition and community partnerships to address health disparities. SAGES will also host conversations or health events targeting Asian American, Hispanic/Latino, Native Americans.
