

Emergency Preparedness Physician Volunteer Corps Orientation

When: Saturday, April 16, 2005
Where: Prince George's Community College
301 Largo Road
Largo, MD. 20774-2199
Time: 10 a.m. – Noon

Why Attend this Orientation?

At this orientation, you can expect to receive valuable information about the history and overall running of the volunteer program, the call-down procedure, and how to maneuver through the five new online training courses on Public Health Response and Preparedness, Weapons of Mass Destruction, Incident Command Structure, and Legal Considerations for Volunteers. You will also have your picture taken for your Volunteer Corps ID badge. This orientation to the online program is NOT MANDATORY; however, you will need to make arrangements to have your photo taken for your ID Badge through the Board's Emergency Preparedness Coordinator if you do not attend an orientation session. Refreshments will be provided, as well as free parking.

This online program has been planned & implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Their Elements of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the Joint Sponsorship of MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society and the Maryland Board of Physicians. MedChi is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. MedChi designates this activity for 4 Category I credits toward the AMA Physician's Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those hours of credit he/she actually spent in the educational activity.
